Class 1C - Cash-in-Transit Guard – Security Licence Course

A new 1C (Cash-in-Transit Guard) security licence subclass commenced on 1 June 2023 and authorise holders to patrol, protect or guard cash-in-transit (CIT).

If you have been carrying on CIT activities under the authority of the 1A (Unarmed Guard) subclass, you may continue to carry on the activities while holding the 1A (Security Officer) subclass until 1 December 2023. To carry on CIT activities after this date, you must:

1. complete a NSW Security Licence Course that incorporates the mandatory CIT-specific units of competency; and
2. apply for the new 1C (Cash-in-Transit Guard) subclass by 1 December 2023 and include evidence of completing the mandatory CIT-specific training.

You will not have to pay the licence application fee if you complete these steps by 1 December 2023 and will receive a new photo licence showing the 1C (Cash-in-Transit Guard) subclass.

To carry on armed CIT activities from 1 June 2023 you must hold the 1C (Cash-in-Transit Guard) and the 1F (Armed Guard) subclasses.

If you hold a current 1F (Armed Guard) subclass, your licence record will be amended on 1 June to show you have been automatically granted the 1C (Cash-in-Transit Guard) subclass. This is due to you having already completed CIT-specific training. You will retain the 1F subclass.

These subclass changes will be reflected immediately on SLED's Public Register.

Skill Set Details

CPPSS00061 - Cash-in-transit

Target Group

This skill set is suitable for licensed security officers who are responsible for collecting, transferring and delivering cash and valuables.

Physical capabilities

The physical requirements of a Security Guard need to have the ability to deal with various security threats and challenges and perform physical tasks on a daily basis. For instance: ejecting a person from property who may be causing harm to a person or property/assets; perform first aid and good vision to have a strong sense of observation. The role often demands quick responses to particular situations and the ability to move quickly; and the physical ability to work on your feet for a whole shift patrolling sites or positioned at a gate checking people in and out or even running in emergencies.

Physical fitness enables you to handle these situations effectively. Strength and endurance are critical to your daily duties. Security Guards must be vigilant and attentive, constantly scanning their surroundings for potential threats or suspicious activities.
